

Time	Session
09.30am	Arrival and registration
10.00am	Welcome and introduction David Brindle, Public Services Editor, The Guardian
10.05am	State of Caring 2019 – The current state of play Helen Walker, Chief Executive, Carers UK
10.15am	Opening Keynote Caroline Dinenage MP, Minister of State for Care, Department for Health and Social Care TBC
10.45am	Opening Keynote Ruth May, Chief Nursing Officer, NHS England
11.20am	Break
11.35am	Carers in Conversation
12.00pm	Second Keynote Julie Ogle, President Elect, Association of Directors of Social Services and Director of Social Care, Health and Housing, Central Bedfordshire Council
12.30pm	Lunch
1.15pm	Breakout sessions
1.15pm	Carers and the Long Term Plan – implementation and achieving population health Jen Kenward, Experience of Care Lead, NHS England Fatima Khan-Shah, Carer Programme Lead, West Yorkshire and Harrogate Health and Care Partnership
1.15pm	Training and learning for carers – new developments Danielle Fullwood, Senior Nurse, Professional Development, Health Education England Emily Holzhausen OBE, Director of Policy and Public Affairs, Carers UK
1.15pm	Innovations in social care Steve Carefull, Director, PA Consulting Ed Humphreys, Programme Manager - Digital & Information, Care and Health, Local Government Association
1:15pm	Quality, evidence and driving improvement – making things matter for carers Kate Terroni, Chief Inspector – Adult Social Care, Care Quality Commission Representative from Healthwatch tbc
1.15pm	Young carers and the Carers Action Plan Laura Bennett, Head of Policy, Carers Trust Helen Leadbitter, Operation Manager for the Include Project, Children's Society

2.15pm	Poster session presentations Carers Passports - Katie Heard, Carers Lead, Torbay and South Devon NHS Foundation Trust Carers Breaks – Social Care Institute for Excellence Supporting Working Carers: How we engage SMEs – Lincolnshire County Council Affiliate poster competition winners: Mental Health and Wellbeing Support - Suffolk Family Carers Carers GP Enhanced Offer Pilot Scheme – n-compass Northwest
2.50pm	Questions to the panel
3.10pm	Break
3.30pm	Afternoon welcome and introduction David Brindle, Public Services Editor, The Guardian
3.35pm	Afternoon plenary: The future of caring Simon Bottery, Senior Fellow, Social Care, The Kings Fund
4.00pm	Polling
4.20pm	Round-up of the day Professor David Grayson CBE, Chair, Carers UK
4.30pm	Conference closes
4.45pm 6.30pm	Carers UK Affiliate Members reception